This booklet has some hard words.

The first time we write a hard word

- the word is in bold.
- we will write down what they mean.

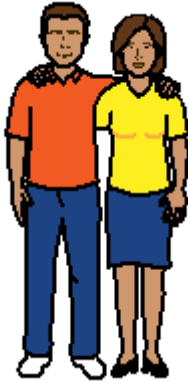

You can get someone to help you

- read this booklet.
- know what this booklet says.

- find more information.

You can ask

- a family member

- an advocate

An advocate is someone who knows what you want.

They can tell us what you want.

- a guardian

A guardian is someone who can make choices for you.

What is Participant Rights Policy

This booklet is about your rights as a participant.

- You are the participant.
- Your rights are what you can do or get under the law.
- You have rights to be treated well.

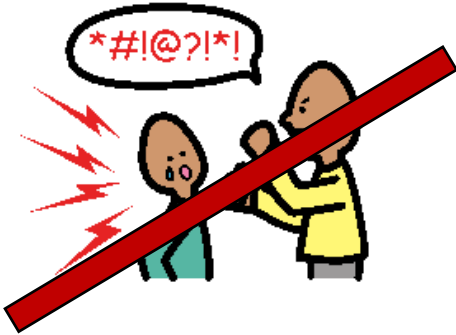

What we do

- We respect you.
- Respect is listening to your feelings, wants and needs.

- We follow the law.

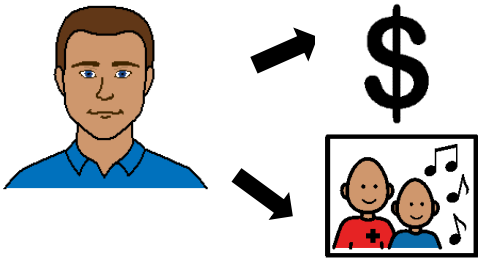

- We don't use you or hurt you.

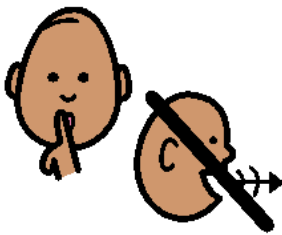

- We help you grow to do more of what you want.

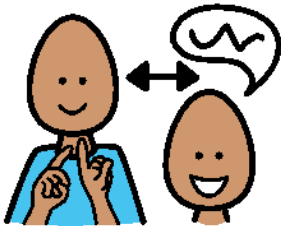

- We treat you as well as everyone else.

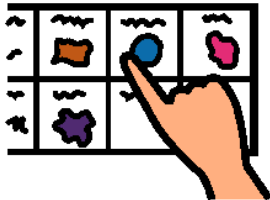

- We help you make choices and have control.

- We keep your information private.

- We talk in an easy way for you.

- Your language or with your device.

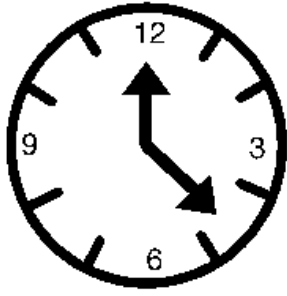

- We help you stay safe.

- We help you keep your culture strong.

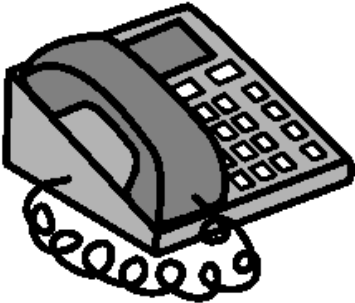

- We do this all the time.

- If something is wrong we will help you to tell someone.
